A Practical Study of ROMANS: THE GIFT of God's Grace

"A Relationship with God Based on His Righteousness" PART I - Romans 1-4

STUDY NUMBER ONE - ROMANS 1:1-17

NOTES

- v. 1 Paul, a bondslave of Christ Jesus, called as an apostle, having been set apart for the gospel of God,
- v. 2 which He promised beforehand through His prophets in the holy scriptures,
- v. 3 concerning His Son, who was born of the seed of David according to the flesh,
- v. 4 who has been declared to be the powerful Son of God by the resurrection from the dead, according to the Spirit of holiness, Jesus Christ our Lord
- v. 5 through whom we received grace and apostleship with a view to [promoting] obedience which springs from faith among all the Gentiles, for His name's sake,
- v. 6 among whom you are also the called ones of Jesus Christ;
- v. 7 to all who are beloved of God in Rome, called saints. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- v. 8 First, I am thanking my God through Jesus Christ for you all, because your faith is being proclaimed throughout the whole world.
- v. 9 For my witness is God, whom I am serving in my spirit in the preaching of the gospel of His Son, how unceasingly I am making mention of you, v.10 always in my prayers making request, if perhaps now at last I may succeed in the will of God to come to you.
- v.11 For I am longing to see you in order that I may share some spiritual gift with you, that you may be established;
- v.12 that is, that I may be encouraged together with you while among you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine.

NOTES

v.13 And I am not desiring you to be ignorant, brethren, that often I planned to come to you (and I was prevented until now), in order that I might have some fruit among you also, even as also among the rest of the Gentiles.
v.14 I am under obligation both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish.

 $\underline{v.15}$ Thus, for my part, I am eager to preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome.

v.16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who is believing, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

v.17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith unto faith; even as it has been written, "But the righteous man shall live by faith."

STUDY NUMBER TWO - ROMANS 1:18-32

- v.18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who are holding down the truth by unrighteousness,
- v.19 because that which is knowable about God is evident within them; for God made it evident to them.
- v.20 For the invisible attributes of Him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by means of the things that are made, even His eternal power and divine nature, so that they are without excuse.
- v.21 For even though they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God or give thanks; but their thoughts became directed to worthless things, and their foolish heart was darkened.
- v.22 Professing to be wise, they became fools, forever. Amen.

- v.23 and they exchanged the glory of the immortal God for an image in the likeness of mortal man and of birds and of four-footed animals and of reptiles.
- v.24 Therefore God gave them over in the lusts of their hearts to viciousness (impurity), that their bodies might be degraded among them.
 v.25 For they exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creation rather than the one who created, who is to be praised
- v.26 Because of this God gave them over to disgraceful (degrading) passions; for their women exchanged the natural function for that which is against nature,
- v.27 and in the same way also the men abandoned the natural function of the woman and burned in their desire towards one another, men with men committing shameless acts and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error.
- v.28 And just as they did not see fit to acknowledge God any longer, God gave them over to a depraved mind, to be doing those things which are not fitting,
- v.29 having been filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, craftiness, gossips,
- v.30 slanderers, hateful to God, violent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents,
- v.31 without understanding, untrustworthy, unloving, unmerciful;

NOTES

STUDY NUMBER THREE - ROMANS 2:1-16

NOTES

- v. 2 But we are knowing that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who are practicing such things.

- v.14 For when Gentiles who are not having the Law are doing by nature the things of the Law, these, not having Law, are a law to themselves,
- v.15 in that they are showing the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness, and their thoughts in the meanwhile accusing or else defending themselves,

STUDY NUMBER FOUR - ROMANS 2:17-29

NOTES NOTES

- v.17 But if you are bearing the name "Jew," and you are finding rest upon the Law, and boasting in God,
- v.18 and knowing His will, and approving the things that are essential, being instructed out of the Law,
- v.19 you have convinced yourself that you are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,
- v.20 a corrector of those who are foolish, a teacher of the immature, having in the Law the framework of the knowledge and of the truth;
- v.21 you, therefore, who are teaching another, are you not teaching yourself? You who are preaching a person should not be stealing, are you stealing?
- v.22 You who are saying that a person should not be committing adultery, are you committing adultery? You who are detesting idols, are you robbing temples?
- $\underline{\text{v.23}}$ You who are boasting in the Law, through your breaking the Law, are you dishonoring God?
- v.24 For "the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you," even as it has been written.
- v.25 For indeed circumcision is of value, if you are practicing the Law; but if you are a transgressor of the Law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.

NOTES

$\underline{\text{v.26}}$ If therefore the uncircumcised man is keeping the requirements of the Law, will not his uncircumcison be regarded as circumcision?

v.27 And will not he who is physically uncircumcised, if he is keeping the Law, will he not judge you who though having the letter of the Law and circumcision are a transgressor of the Law?

 $\underline{v.28}$ For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly; neither is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh.

 $\underline{\text{v.29}}$ But he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that which is of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter; and his praise is not from men, but from God.

1.	Read Romans 2:17-29 and in your own words pull out the main thought of this passage.

LESSON #7: When we live in disobedience, we are dishonoring God.

LESSON #8: God's name can be blasphemed by the way we live.

LESSON #10: The only way to escape God's judgment is by obedience.

STUDY NUMBER FIVE - ROMANS 3:1-20

- v. 1 Then what advantage has the Jew? Or what is the benefit of circumcision?
- v. 2 Much every way. For first of all, that they were entrusted with the oracles of God.
- v. 3 What then? If some did not believe, their unbelief will not nullify the faithfulness of God, will it?
- v. 4 May it never be! Rather, let God continue to be true, though every man be found a liar, even as it has been written, "In order that You might be declared righteous in Your words, and will come out victor when You are being judged."
- v. 5 But if our unrighteousness is demonstrating the righteousness of God, what shall we say? The God who is inflicting wrathful punishment is not unrighteous, is He? (I am speaking according to man.)
- v. 6 May it never be! Otherwise how will God judge the world?
- v. 7 But if through my lie the truth of God abounded to His glory, why am I also still being judged as a sinner?
- v. 8 And why not say (as we are slanderously reported and even as certain ones are affirming that we are saying), "Let us do the evil in order that good may come"? Their condemnation is just.
- v. 9 What then? Are we in a worse position [than they]? Not by any means; for we previously brought a charge against both Jews and Greeks that all are under sin;
- v.10 even as it has been written that, "There is none righteous, not even one;
- v.11 there is none who is comprehending, there is none who is seeking out God;
- v.12 all turned aside, together they became useless; there is none who is doing good, there is not even one."
- v.13 "Their throat is a grave that has been opened, with their tongues they keep deceiving, the poison of asps is under their lips";
- v.14 "whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness";
- $\overline{v.15}$ "their feet are swift to shed blood,
- v.16 destruction and misery are in their paths,
- v.17 and the path of peace have they not known."
- v.18 "There is no fear of God before their eyes."
- v.19 Now we are knowing that whatever the Law is saying, it is speaking to those who are under the Law, in order that every mouth may be closed, and all the world may become accountable to God;
- v.20 because by the works of the Law there shall not be declared righteous any flesh in His sight; for through the Law comes the knowledge of sin.

STUDY NUMBER SIX - ROMANS 3:21-31

NOTES

v.21 But now apart from the Law the righteousness of God has been revealed, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets;
 v.22 even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all those who are believing; for there is no distinction;

v.23 for all sinned and are falling short of the glory of God,

NOTES

v.25 whom God displayed publicly as a propitiation in His blood through faith for a proof of His righteousness, because in the forbearance of God He passed over the sins previously committed;

 $\underline{\text{v.26}}$ for the proof of His righteousness at the present time, to the end that He might be just and the one who is declaring righteous the one who is having faith in Jesus.

 $\underline{v.27}$ Where then is the boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith.

v.28 For we are maintaining that a man is declared righteous by faith apart from works of the Law.

 $\underline{v.29}$ Or is God the God of Jews only? Is He not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also v.30 if indeed God is one—and He will declare righteous the circumcision by faith and the uncircumcision through faith.

Notes

- v. 1 What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, has found?
- v. 2 For if Abraham was declared righteous by works, he is having something to boast about; but not toward God.
- v. 3 For what is the scripture saying? "And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness."
- v. 4 Now to the one who is working, his wage is not reckoned as a favor but as what is due.
- $\underline{\text{v. 5}}$ But to the one who is not working, but is believing in Him who is declaring righteous the ungodly, his faith is reckoned as righteousness.
- v. 6 Even as David also is speaking of the blessing upon the man to whom God is reckoning righteousness apart from works:
- $\underline{v. 7}$ "Blessed are those whose lawless deeds have been forgiven, and whose sins have been covered.
- v. 8 Blessed is the man whose sin the Lord will not in any case take into account."
- v. 9 Is this blessing then upon the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we are saying, "Faith was reckoned to Abraham as righteousness."
- v.10 How then was it reckoned? While being in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not while in circumcision, but while in uncircumcision;
- v.11 and he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while in uncircumcision, that he might be the father of all who are believing while in the condition of uncircumcision, that righteousness might be reckoned to them,
- v.12 and the father of circumcision to those who are not only of the circumcision, but who also are following in the footsteps of the faith of our father Abraham while he was in uncircumcision.

STUDY NUMBER EIGHT - ROMANS 4:13-25

NOTES

- v.13 For not through law was the promise made to Abraham or to his offspring that he would be heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith.
- v.14 For if those who are of the Law are heirs, faith has been rendered void and the promise has been rendered inoperative;

NOTES

v.15 for the Law is bringing about wrath, but where there is no Law, neither is there violation.

- v.16 For this reason it is by faith, in order that it might be in accordance with grace, in order that the promise may be certain to all the offspring, not only to those who are of the Law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,
- v.17 (even as it has been written, "A father of many nations have I made you") in the sight of Him whom he believed, even God, who is making alive those who are dead and is calling the things which do not exist as existing.
- v.18 Who being beyond hope upon the basis of hope believed, in order that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which has been spoken, "So shall your offspring be."
- v.19 And not becoming weak in faith he contemplated his worn-out body, he being about one hundred years old, and the deadness of Sarah's womb; v.20 yet, with respect to the promise of God, he did not vacillate in unbelief,
- but grew strong in faith, giving glory to God, v.21 and being fully convinced that what He had promised, He was able also to do.
- v.22 Therefore also it was reckoned to him as righteousness.
- v.23 Now it was not written for his sake only that it was reckoned to him,
- $\underline{\text{v.24}}$ but for our sake also, to whom it will be reckoned, as those who are believing in Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead,
- v.25 who was delivered up because of our transgressions, and was raised because of our justification.

1.	Read Romans 4:13-25 and in your own words pull out the main thought of this passage.
2.	How was the promise made to Abraham, according to verse 13?
3.	What does the Law bring about, according to verse 15?
4.	Why is it by faith, according to verse 16 ?

6.	Describe Abraham's relationship to the promise, according to verse 20.
7.	Of what is Abraham fully convinced in verse 21 ?
8.	Why did Jesus die and why was He raised, according to verse 25?
9.	Which verse in the study has meant the most to you?

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

- LESSON #1: The Law had nothing to do with Abraham's being declared righteous before God.
- LESSON #2: The promise made to Abraham was unconditional.
- LESSON #3: If the inheritance comes through the Law, then faith has no part to play in the process.
- LESSON #4: If the inheritance comes by the keeping of the Law, then no one will secure the promise.
- LESSON #5: The promise comes by faith alone so that it can be according to grace.

LESSON #6: From a human perspective, Abraham had every reason to be weak in faith.

LESSON #7: Abraham remained strong in faith, giving glory to God for the promises even in the face of impossible circumstances.

"A Relationship with God Based on His Righteousness" PART II - Romans 5-8

STUDY NUMBER NINE - THE RESULTS OF A RELATIONSHIP - ROMANS 5:1-11

NOTES NOTES

- $\underline{\text{v. 1}}$ Therefore, having been made right by faith, we are having peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,
- v. 2 through whom also we have obtained our introduction (entree) by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we are rejoicing (exulting, glorying) in hope of the glory of God.
- v. 3 And not only this, but we also are rejoicing (exulting, glorying) in our tribulations, knowing that this tribulation is producing endurance;
- v. 4 and this endurance, character; and this character, hope;
- v. 5 and this hope does not disappoint; because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.
- v. 6 For when we were still helpless, at the right time Christ died for the godless.
- v. 7 For one will hardly die for a righteous man; though perhaps for the good man someone would even dare to die.
- v. 8 But God is demonstrating His own love to us, because while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
- v. 9 Much more therefore, having been justified now by His blood, we shall be saved through Him from the wrath.
- v.10 For if while being enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life.

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

- LESSON #1: There are eight results of a relationship to the Lord Jesus Christ: 1) peace with God; 2) an introduction or an entree into this grace in which we stand; 3) glory in hope of the glory of God; 4) tribulation is producing endurance; 5) the love of God that has been poured in our hearts; 6) the Holy Spirit, who was given to us; 7) having been justified now by His blood we shall be saved through Him from the wrath; and 8) we rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ through whom we have now received the reconciliation.
- LESSON #2: Ask yourself the question, "Have I ever been made right with God by faith? And therefore, I am experiencing peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.
- LESSON #3: Do you know anything about the fact that Jesus Christ died on the cross and shed His blood?

STUDY NUMBER TEN – THE HOW OF THE RELATIONSHIP – ROMANS 5:12-21 NOTES

v.12 Therefore, just as through one man sin entered the world, and through this sin, death, and so death spread to all men, because all sinned—v.13 For until Law sin was in the world; but sin is not put to one's account where there is no law.

v.14 But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the likeness of Adam's offense, who is a type of the One who was to come.

NOTES

- v.15 But the gracious gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, much more the grace of God and the gift by grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to many.
 v.16 And the gift is not like that which came through the one who sinned; for
- v.16 And the gift is not like that which came through the one who sinned; to on the one hand the judgment was out of one transgression, resulting in condemnation, but on the other hand the gracious gift was out of many transgressions resulting in justification.
- v.17 For if by the transgression of the one, death reigned through that one, much more those who are receiving the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.
- v.18 So then, as through one transgression to all men there resulted condemnation; so also through one act of righteousness, to all men there resulted justification of life.
- v.19 For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were constituted sinners, so also through the obedience of the One the many will be constituted righteous.
- v.20 Now Law entered in alongside in order that the transgression might multiply; but where sin multiplied, grace was present in greater abundance, v.21 in order that just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness, resulting in eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

- LESSON #6: Through Adam's sin came condemnation and judgment, through Christ and His act of righteousness, through His death upon Calvary's cross, there is now justification of life.

LESSON #7: There is forgiveness and cleansing and as a result of His obedience, many are constituted righteous simply by appropriating by faith what Christ has done upon Calvary's cross.

STUDY NUMBER ELEVEN – THE RESPONSIBILITY TO THE RELATION – ROMANS 6:1-10	ISHIP Notes
v. 1 What then shall we say? Are we to continue in sin in order that grace might increase?
v. 2 May it never be! How shall we who died to sin still live in it? v. 3 Or do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into His death?
 v. 4 Therefore we have been buried with Him through baptism into death, in order that in the same manner as Christ was raised up from the dead through the glory of the Father, so also we too might walk in a new life. v. 5 For if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death certainly we shall be also in the likeness of His resurrection; v. 6 knowing this, that our old self was crucified with Him, in order that the sinful body may be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves to sin;
v. 7 for the one who died has been freed from sin. v. 8 Now if we died with Christ, we are believing that we shall also live with Him,
 v. 9 knowing that Christ, having been raised from the dead, no longer is dying. Death no longer is exercising lordship over Him. v.10 For the death He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life He lives, He lives to God.

STUDY NUMBER TWELVE - SIN AND THE RELATIONSHIP - ROMANS 6:11-23

- v.11 So also you consider yourselves to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.
- $\underline{v.12}$ Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you are obeying its desires.
- v.13 Moreover, stop presenting the members of your body to sin as tools of wickedness; but present yourselves to God as those who are alive from the dead, and your members as tools of righteousness to God.
- v.14 For sin shall not exercise lordship over you, for you are not under law, but under grace.
- v.15 What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? May it never be!

NOTES

NOTES

- v.16 Are you not knowing that when you present yourselves to someone as slaves resulting in obedience, you are slaves of the one whom you are obeying, whether of sin resulting in death, or of obedience resulting in righteousness?
- v.17 But thanks be to God that though you were slaves of sin, you obeyed from the heart to that form of teaching, for the learning of which you were given over,
- v.18 and having been set free from sin, you were made slaves to righteousness.
- v.19 I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh: for just as you presented your members as slaves to uncleanness and lawlessness, resulting in lawlessness; so now present your members as slaves to righteousness resulting in holiness.
- v.20 For when you were slaves of sin, you were free with respect to righteousness.
- v.21 Therefore, what fruit were you having then from the things of which you are now ashamed? For the outcome of those things is death.
- v.22 But now, having been set free from sin and having been made bondslaves of God, you are having your fruit, resulting in holiness, and the outcome, eternal life.
- v.23 For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is life eternal in Christ Jesus our Lord.

- LESSON #2: The Apostle has really challenged us in two areas: 1) in the area of the Lordship of Jesus Christ in our lives, resulting in the fruit of righteousness; and 2) the wages of sin which is death.
- LESSON #3: Where do you stand? Have you come to know Jesus Christ as Savior?
- LESSON #4: Have you received the free gift of righteousness in Jesus Christ?

- v. 1 For do you not know, brethren, for I am speaking to those who are knowing the law, that the law is ruling over the individual as long as he lives?
- v. 2 For the married woman has been bound by law to her living husband; but if her husband dies, she has been released from the law of her husband. v. 3 So then, if while her husband is living, she is joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress, though she is joined to another
- v. 4 Therefore, my brethren, you also were put to death to the Law through the body of Christ, resulting in your being joined to another, to the One who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit to God.
- v. 5 For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions were at work in our members through the Law to bear fruit for death.

STUDY NUMBER FOURTEEN - THE LAW IN THE RELATIONSHIP
- ROMANS 7:7-13
	NOTES .
v. 7 What therefore shall we say? Is the Law sin? May it never be! On the contrary, I would not have known sin except through the Law; for I would not have known evil desire except that the Law was saying: "You shall not desire evil."
v. 8 But sin, grasping an opportunity through the commandment, called forth within me every kind of evil desire; for without Law, sin is dead. v. 9 And I was once alive without Law; but when the commandment came, sin became alive, and I died; v.10 and this commandment, which was to result in life, I discovered to result in death for me.
v.11 For sin, grasping an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me.
v.12 So then, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.
v.13 Therefore, did that which is good become death for me? May it never be! Rather it was sin, in order that it might be shown to be sin by accomplishing my death through that which is good, in order that through the commandment sin might become sinful in the extreme.

STUDY NUMBER FIFTEEN - CONDUCT AND THE RELATIONSHIP - ROMANS 7:14-25

- v.14 For we are knowing that the Law is spiritual; but I am fleshly, having been sold under sin.
- v.15 For that which I am doing, I am not understanding; for I am not practicing that which I am desiring to do, but I am doing that which I am hating.
- v.16 Now if I am doing that which I am not desiring, I am agreeing with the Law, that it is good.
- v.17 So now, no longer am I the one doing it, but sin which indwells me.
- v.18 For I am knowing that nothing good is dwelling in me, that is, in my flesh; for the being desirous is present in me, but the doing of the good is not.
- $\underline{v.19}$ For the good which I am desiring, I am not doing; but I am practicing the very evil that I am not desiring.
- $\underline{\text{v.20}}$ Now if I am doing the very thing I am not desiring, I am no longer the one doing it, but sin which dwells in me.
- v.21 I am finding then the law, that evil is present in me, the one who is desiring to do good.

 $\underline{\text{v.24}}$ Wretched man that I am! Who shall set me free out of the body of this death?

v.25 Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, on the one hand I myself with my mind am serving the law of God, but on the other, with my flesh the law of sin.

LESSON #3: The Law of God represents the principle which controls the new nature and the law of sin equals the sin nature.
LESSON #4: There are two natures of the believer; 1) the old nature can only serve the law of sin; and 2) the new nature can only serve the Law of God.
LESSON #5: One nature must be prominent in the life of the believer.

- v. 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus freed you from the law of sin and death.
- v. 3 For what was impossible for the Law, because it was weak through the flesh, God, having sent His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and concerning sin, He condemned sin in the flesh,
- v. 4 in order that the requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who are not walking according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.
- v. 5 For those who are according to the flesh are setting their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who are according to the Spirit, on the things of the Spirit.
- v. 6 For the way of thinking of the flesh is death, but the way of thinking of the Spirit is life and peace;
- v. 7 because the way of thinking of the flesh is hostile toward God; for it is not subjecting itself to the Law of God, for it is not even able to do so;
- v. 8 and those who are in the flesh are not able to please God.
- v. 9 But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God is dwelling in you. But if anyone is not having the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him.
- v.10 Now if Christ is in you, on the one hand the body is dead because of sin, but on the other hand the Spirit is alive because of righteousness.
 v.11 And if the Spirit of the One who raised Jesus from the dead is dwelling in you, He who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who is dwelling in you.

NOTES

- v.18 For I am of the opinion that the sufferings of this present time are not to be compared with the glory which is about to be revealed to us.
- v.19 For the anxious longing of the creation is awaiting eagerly for the revelation of the sons of God.
- v.20 For the creation was subjected to frustration, not of its own free will, but because of Him who subjected it, in hope,
- $\underline{\text{v.21}}$ that the creation itself also will be set free from its slavery to decay into the liberty of the glory of the children of God.
- v.22 For we are knowing that the whole creation is groaning together and suffering the pains of childbirth together until now.
- v.23 And not only this, but also we ourselves who are having the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves are groaning within ourselves, waiting eagerly our adoption, the redemption of our body.
- $\underline{\text{v.24}}$ For in hope we have been saved, but hope that is seen is not hope; for why is one also hoping for what he is seeing?
- v.25 But if we are hoping for that which we are not seeing, with patience we are waiting eagerly for it.

- $\underline{v. 5}$ of whom are the fathers, and out from whom is the Christ according to the flesh, the one who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.
- v. 6 But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For they are not all Israel who are [descended] from Israel;
- v. 7 neither are they all children because they are offspring of Abraham, but: "through Isaac your offspring will be named."
- v. 8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are regarded as offspring.
- v. 9 For this is a word of promise: "At this time I will come and Sarah shall have a son."
- v.10 And not only this, but there was Rebekah also, conceiving [twins] by one man, Isaac our father;
- $\underline{v.11}$ for though [the twins] were not yet born, nor having done anything good or bad, in order that the purpose of God according to His choice may remain, not because of works, but because of Him who is calling,

STUDY NUMBER TWENTY-TWO - ROMANS 9:14-29

NOTES

- v.14 What shall we say then? There is no wrongdoing with God, is there? May it never be!
- v.15 For to Moses He is saying, "I will have mercy upon whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion upon whom I have compassion."
- v.16 So then it is not depending on the one who is desiring or the one who is running, but on God who is having mercy.
- v.17 For the Scripture is saying to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I raised you up, in order that I might demonstrate my power in you, and in order that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."
- v.18 So then He is having mercy on whom He is desiring, and He is hardening whom He is desiring.
- v.19 You will say to me then, "Why is He still finding fault? For who resists His will?"
- v.20 On the contrary, who are you, O man, who is answering back to God? The thing molded will not say to the molder, "Why did you make me like this," will it?
- v.21 Or is not the potter having a right over the clay, to make from the same lump one vessel for honorable use, and another for dishonorable use?
- v.22 But what if God, although willing to demonstrate His wrath and to make known His power, endured with much patience vessels of wrath having been prepared for destruction?
- v.23 And He did so in order that He might make known the riches of His glory upon vessels of mercy, which He prepared beforehand for glory, v.24 even us, whom He also called, not only from among Jews, but also from among Gentiles.
- v.25 As He is saying also in Hosea, "I will call those who were not my people, 'My people,' and her who was not beloved, 'Beloved.'"
- v.26 "And it shall be that in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' there they shall be called sons of the living God."
- v.27 And Isaiah is crying out concerning Israel, "Though the number of the sons of Israel be as the sand of the sea, it is the remnant that will be saved; v.28 for the Lord will execute His word upon the earth, closing the account and shortening [the time]."
- v.29 And even as Isaiah has said before, "Except the Lord of Hosts had left us offspring, we would have become as Sodom, and would have been made like Gomorrah."

1.	Read Romans 9:14-29 and in your own words pull out the main thought of this passage.

STUDY NUMBER TWENTY-THREE - ROMANS 9:30-10:11

Notes

- v.30 What then shall we say? That Gentiles, who are not pursuing, attained righteousness, even the righteousness which is by faith;
- v.31 but Israel, pursuing a law of righteousness, did not measure up to that law.
- v.32 Why? Because they are not pursuing it by faith, but as though it were by works. They stumbled over the stumbling-stone,
- v.33 even as it is written, "Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense, and he who is believing in Him will not be disappointed."
- 10:v. 1 Brethren, the consuming desire of my heart and my prayer to God for them is for their salvation.
- v. 2 For I am bearing them witness that they are having a zeal for God, but not in accordance with knowledge.
- v. 3 For not knowing about the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God.
- v. 4 For Christ is the end (goal) of the law for righteousness to everyone who is believing.
- $\underline{\text{v. 5}}$ For Moses is writing that the man who practices the righteousness which is out of the law shall live by it.
- v. 6 But the righteousness which is out of faith is speaking in this manner, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who shall ascend into heaven?' (that is, to bring Christ down), $\underline{v. 7}$ or, 'Who shall descend into the abyss?' (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead)."

NOTES

v. 9 that if you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved.

- $\underline{v.11}$ I am saying then, they did not stumble so as to fall, did they? May it never be! But by their transgression salvation has come to the Gentiles, to make them jealous.
- v.12 Now if their transgression be riches for the world and their loss be riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their fulness be!
- v.13 But I am speaking to you who are Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle of Gentiles, I am magnifying my ministry,
- v.14 if somehow I might move to jealousy those who are my flesh and save some of them.
- v.15 For if their rejection be the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?
- $\underline{v.16}$ And if the first piece of dough be holy, the lump is also; and if the root be holy, the branches are too.

- v.20 Quite right, they were broken off for their unbelief, and you stand only by your faith. Stop being conceited, but be fearing;
- v.21 for if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will He spare you.
- v.22 Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off.
- v.23 And they also, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in; for God is able to graft them in again.
- v.24 For if you were cut off from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more shall these who are the natural branches be grafted into their own olive tree?

v.25 For I am not desiring you to be uninformed, brethren, concerning this mystery, in order that you may not be wise in your own estimation, that hardening in part has come to Israel until the fulness of the Gentiles has come in:

- v.26 and thus all Israel will be saved; just as it has been written, "The one who is delivering will come from Zion, He will remove ungodliness from Jacob."
- v.27 "And this is my covenant with them, when I take away their sins."
- v.28 From the standpoint of the gospel they are enemies for your sake, but from the standpoint of God's choice they are beloved for the sake of the fathers:

STUDY NUMBER TWENTY-NINE - ROMANS 12:1-21

- v. 1 I am urging you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, well-pleasing to God, which is your spiritual service of worship.
- v. 2 And stop being fashioned to this age, but let yourselves be transformed by the renewing of your mind, resulting in your putting to the test what the will of God is, that which is good and well-pleasing and perfect.
- \underline{v} . 3 For through the grace given to me, I am saying to every man who is among you not to be thinking more highly of himself than he ought to be thinking; but to be thinking so as to be having sound judgment, as God apportioned to each a measure of faith.
- v. 4 For just as we are having many members in one body and all the members are not having the same function,
- v. 5 so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another.

- v.18 If possible, so far as it is depending on you, be living in peace with all men

STUDY NUMBER THIRTY - ROMANS 13:1-14

- v. 1 Let every person be putting himself in subjection to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those which are existing are established by God.
- v. 2 So that he who is resisting authority has opposed the ordinance of God; and they who have opposed will receive condemnation upon themselves.
- v. 3 For the rulers are not a cause of fear for good behavior, but for evil. Now are you desiring to be having no fear of the authority? Keep on doing the good, and you will have commendation from the same;
- v. 4 for it is a minister of God to you for good. But if you are doing what is evil, be fearing; for it is not bearing the sword for nothing; for it is a minister of God, an avenger who is bringing wrath upon the one who is practicing evil.
- v. 5 Wherefore it is necessary to be putting oneself in subjection, not only because of wrath, but also because of conscience.
- v. 6 For because of this you also are paying taxes, for [rulers] are servants of God, continually giving their attention to this very thing.
- v. 7 Render to all what is due them: tax to whom tax [is due]; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.
- $\underline{v.\ 8}$ Be owing nothing to anyone except to be loving one another; for the one who is loving the other has fulfilled the law.
- v. 9 For this, "You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet," and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this saying, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

NOTES

v.10 Love is working no evil to a neighbor; love therefore is the fulfillment of the law.

v.11 And this do, knowing the time, that it is already the hour for you to awaken from sleep; for now our salvation is nearer to us than when we believed.

 $\underline{v.12}$ The night is almost gone, and the day is at hand. Let us therefore lay aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light.

v.13 Let us walk around properly as in the day, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual excesses and sensuality, not in strife and jealousy.

- v. 2 One man is having faith that he may eat all things, but he who is weak is eating vegetables [only].
- $\underline{v. \ 3}$ Let not him who is eating be treating with contempt him who is not eating, and let not him who is not eating be judging him who is eating, for God accepted him.
- v. 4 Who are you, the one who is judging the house-servant of another? To his own master he is standing or falling; and stand he will, for the Lord is able to make him stand.
- v. 5 One man is judging one day above another, another is judging every day [alike]. Let each man be fully convinced in his own mind.
- v. 6 He who is observing the day is observing it for the Lord, and he who is eating is eating for the Lord, for he is giving thanks to God; and he who is not eating, for the Lord he is not eating, and he is giving thanks to God.
- v. 7 For not one of us is living for himself, and not one is dying for himself;
- v. 8 for if we are living, we are living for the Lord, or if we are dying, we are dying for the Lord; therefore whether we are living or whether we are dying, we are the Lord's.
- v. 9 For to this end Christ died and lived [again], in order that He might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.
- v.10 But you, why are you judging your brother? Or you again, why are you regarding your brother with contempt? For we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of God.
- v.11 For it has been written: "As I am living, the Lord is saying, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God."

NOTES

- v.13b But rather determine this—not to be placing an obstacle or a stumbling block in a brother's way.
- v.14 I am knowing and have been persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself; but to him who is thinking anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.
- v.15 For if because of food your brother is grieving, you are no longer walking according to love. Stop destroying with your food him for whom Christ died.
- v.16 Therefore, stop allowing your good to be spoken of as evil;
- v.17 for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.
- v.18 For he who in this way is serving Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men.
- v.19 So then let us be pursuing the things which make for peace and the building up of one another.
- v.20 Stop tearing down the work of God for the sake of food. All things indeed are clean, but they are evil for the man who is eating and is giving offense.
- v.21 It is good not to eat meat or to drink wine, or to do anything by which your brother is stumbling.
- v.22 As for you, the faith which you are having, be having to yourself in the sight of God. Happy is he who is not condemning himself in that which he is approving.
- v.23 But he who is doubting stands condemned if he eats, because [his eating] is not from faith; moreover, everything which is not of faith is sin.
- 15:v. 1 Now we who are strong are having a moral obligation to be bearing the weaknesses of those without strength and not [just] to be pleasing ourselves.
- v. 2 Let each of us be pleasing his neighbor for what is good to edification.
- v. 3 For even Christ did not please himself; but even as it has been written: "The reproaches of those who are reproaching You fell upon Me."

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

- LESSON #1: It is a good thing for us to plan and set goals for the future, but they must be flexible.
- LESSON #2: Two things were causing Paul to feel that the Lord was leading him elsewhere:

 1) He was finished in the immediate area of ministry; and 2) He was having an increasing desire to do something else.
- LESSON #3: "Delight yourself in the Lord and he will give you the desires of your heart" (Psalm 37:4).
- LESSON #4: Paul's desires are being subjected to his duty for the present.
- LESSON #5: Giving should be a voluntary matter.
